

TEXAS PRESS e-Newsletter

Representing Texas Press Association

March 2015

Ask An Attorney

HB 1803 may change juvenile access by: Thomas J. Williams, a partner in the Fort Worth office of Haynes and Boone

TEXAS PRESS UPDATE

Click to read about legislative efforts, new staff, scheduled training and new revenue opportunities

DEADLINES

March 26:

- Enter the 2015 Texas Better Newspaper Contest. Click here for details.

April 24:

- Golden 50 Award. Click here for a nomination form.
- Fred Hartman Excellence in Sportswriting Award. Click here for details.
- Frank W. Mayborn Award for Community Leadership. Click here for details.

REGISTER FOR THE SUMMER LEADERSHIP RETREAT

Member registration form \(pdf\)

Past President registration form \(pdf\)

COLUMNS

Postal Tips from Max Heath: Getting the delivery you deserve in shrinking postal network

Writing Coach Jim Stasiowski: We can't give up

TEXAS PRESS JOB BANK

Click here to see 20 or more new jobs posted in the last 30 days.

To receive all job listings as they are posted, subscribe here

SURVEY

University of Missouri journalism student Chika Okoronkwo is seeking volunteers to take a 20 minute survey. One participant will receive a $50 gift card.

Click here to complete the survey

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

- Pew Research Center's new study results: Local News in a Digital Age
- The Texas Tribune and CIR's partnership for radio and podcasts
- The 16th International Symposium on Online Journalism will be held April 17-18 at University of Texas at Austin
- The Austin Business Journal mapped the projected growth of Texas counties
- Ken Doctor on the collapse of single copy sales